

CREW LEADER TRAINING

Instructed by Wayne McNamee – ABC Instructor

This course introduces and provides the means of training your future field leaders. It is structured to provide the skills to lead/supervise a small crew. The course stresses the importance of safety and teaches important aspects of job organization to insure the success of your projects. Course topics include:

- * The construction industry of today
- * Construction organization
- * Team building
- * Gender and minority issues
- * Communication
- * Project control
- * Safety
- * Decision making
- * Problem solving
- * Motivation

Mondays, April 12 thru May 3, 2010

5:00 to 9:00 PM

ABC So-Cal Training Center
1400 No. Kellogg Dr., Anaheim, CA 92807

ABC Members - $240, SE - 2 no charge, Non-Members - $310

This class series is good for 16 hours continuing education credit

Fax form to (714) 779-3193 Attn: Theresa Lovejoy

Company: _____ Phone: _____ Fax: _____

Attendee: _____ Attendee: _____

Attendee: _____ Attendee: _____

_____ Bill Company _____ Charge my MasterCard or Visa $ _____ Card #: _____ CVC Code: _____

Expiration Date: ____/____/____ Authorized Signature: _____

Please note how long students have held the position of crew leader and their experience level next to their name

There will be no refunds given for cancellations after the registration deadline date of one week prior to the start of class. You will be billed the full amount if you register and do not attend without cancelling. Non-Member Journeymen must pay one week in advance of class start date.